On October 14, Women United will celebrate our recently expanded portfolio of Impact initiatives and recognize extraordinary women in leadership and philanthropy. You will have the opportunity to see first hand how, in partnership with United Way, Women United empowers women and families in our community to build strong, independent lives from cradle to career.

Wednesday, October 14, 2020

Crystal Tea Room

100 E. Penn Square, Philadelphia, PA 19107
5:00 p.m. Reception | 6:30 p.m. Dinner

Event proceeds will make a measurable difference in the lives of women and families in our community through the following best-in-class programs.

Early Learning

Vello – Connects students with 1-on-1 tutors through virtual learning

Opportunity, Employment & Entrepreneurship

Girls Today, Leaders Tomorrow – Supports youth development and college and career readiness

Financial Empowerment

VITA – Saves families money with fast, free and confidential tax preparation

Each year, the Women United Gala recognizes the outstanding contributions of women leaders dedicated to changing the lives of others. This year, we are pleased to honor J. Lindsay Johnston. Lindsay is the President of the Power of Professional Women, a professional membership association focused on the development of the next generation of leaders through education, mentoring and purposeful connections. Always committed to giving back to the community, Lindsay has been a problem solver and active volunteer throughout her thirty-year career.
