

UNITED WAY OF GREATER PHILADELPHIA AND SOUTHERN NEW JERSEY
WOMEN UNITED

Upcoming Virtual Volunteer Opportunities Events:

Now through April 12th (Mondays only) - 3:30pm – 5pm

Tri-County YWCA Girls Take the Lead, 9th – 12th Grade (Components of the program focus on: Advocacy, Social Emotional, Empowerment, Mental Health)

Participants are currently working to advocate for themselves and on behalf of student body regarding School District's policies on harassment, victim services/support, diversity & inclusion, mental health support, etc. Opportunities for volunteers to join in conversation as we share stories and strategies regarding advocacy efforts. Girls have written a letter to the School Board and are in correspondence with current Superintendent of School District.

April 12th – Two volunteers needed to join YW to push forward with their advocacy efforts. Share stories of facing adversity with focus on advocacy-based solutions, workplace harassment situations, etc.

To sign up as a volunteer, contact Najah Hooks at 215.665.2482 or WomenUnited@unitedforimpact.org as soon as possible.

Now through April 15

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program (VITA) – virtual

United Way's Volunteer Income Tax Assistance \(VITA\) Program in partnership with Campaign for Working Families \(CWF\) provides fast, free, and confidential tax preparation services for low-to-moderate income individuals and families with a household income less than $55,000.

Virtual intake specialists and certified tax preparer volunteers needed for Women United sponsored site at 1415 North Broad Street (a block from Temple's campus). To learn more about each role, click here. Training is required, regardless of role and is 100% online. Minimum of 30 hrs. required over tax season. To sign up as a "Women United Volunteer", email Jonathan Barnes, Director of Volunteer Engagement at jbarnes@cwphilly.org.

Now through May 20th (Thursdays and Saturdays only)
Urban Promise Guest Speaker Opportunity Available

Volunteers are welcome to join as guest speakers for any Thursday evening (6-7pm) or Saturday morning session (11am-12:30pm). The Saturday sessions are specifically reserved for guest speakers to present to Girls Empowerment class.

To sign up as a volunteer, contact Najah Hooks at 215.665.2482 or WomenUnited@unitedforimpact.org as soon as possible.

Saturday, March 20, 11am – 12:30pm
Urban Promise’s “More Than a Beauty Pageant” Information Meeting & Workshop-

More than a Beauty Pageant was birthed out of a desire to empower our young women to find their voice, identify gifts/talents and walk in their power.

Volunteers needed - Mentors, videographers, talent coaches, make-up artists, and photographers. Female volunteers needed to set-up and assist with dress selection day & photo shoot.

To attend this information session contact Najah Hooks at 215.665.2482 or WomenUnited@unitedforimpact.org by Friday, 3/19.

Wednesday, April 21, 6pm – 7:30pm
Tri-County YWCA Career Exploration, mixed gender cohort, 4th – 9th grade

Looking for a team of volunteers with backgrounds preferably in environmental/sustainable practices or whose work impacts driving consumer habits or industry standards with a focus on sustainability.

Open to anyone else who is interested in joining in and collaborating to build a ‘themed’ program for May.

To volunteer for this event, contact Najah Hooks at 215.665.2482 or WomenUnited@unitedforimpact.org by Friday, 4/2.

Saturday, May 8, 11am-1pm
Urban Promise Career Speed Mentoring Virtual Session

Volunteers needed to help young women enrolled in Urban Promise’s Girls Empowerment program understand and define their long-term vision and offer ideas to enhance their goals

To volunteer for this event, contact Najah Hooks at 215.665.2482 or WomenUnited@unitedforimpact.org by Friday, 4/23.

Friday, May 20, 7 – 8:30pm

Urban Promise's 8th Annual More Than a Beauty Pageant Virtual Event – Purchase tickets online soon!

More than a Beauty Pageant was birthed out of a desire to empower our young women to find their voice, identify gifts/talents and walk in their power. Scholarship prizes will be awarded for each category. The young woman named Ms. Promise will also serve as the Urban Promise Spokesperson/Ambassador for the year.

Looking for (10) mentors, videographers, talent coaches, make-up artists, and photographers. Female volunteers needed to set-up and assist with dress selection day & photo shoot.

To volunteer for this event, contact Najah Hooks 215.665.2482 or WomenUnited@unitedforimpact.org as soon as possible.
